Preface

This Youth Referral Guide was developed by the Community Youth Services (CYS) Youth Committee at Vienna High School. The Guide lists and describes agencies providing services in or near the Johnson County community and includes physical and mental health resources, probation and court resources, basic needs resources, faith and community based organizations, and volunteer and employment resources.

It is the intention of CYS for the Youth Referral Guide to be distributed to areas and locations frequented by youth ages 11-24 within the Johnson County community. It is further intended to familiarize the youth with information regarding referral sources and the corresponding referral process.

The Youth Referral Guide was completed by 3 of Vienna High School's Personal Development classes over the Fall 2019 and Spring 2020 semesters, including: John Bagby, Aidan Baker, Dylan Bocook, Kylie Branscum, Jacob Bullock, Haley Bundren, Kaileigh Butler, Sophia Canada, McKenna Casey, Chloe Clay, Kaylee Cole, Sierra Corzine, Bryan Dunlap, Aidan Evans, Peyton Fraser, Ashley Flannigan, Olivia Garza, Karlie Glisson, Alia Harmon, Karrah Harper, D.J. ## Distribution Plan

The Youth Referral Guide is available to youth in hard copy and electronically.

Approximately 300 hard copies have been placed in locations that youth frequent within the Johnson County area, including: 6 local schools, 1 public library, 2 healthcare facilities, 2 mental health agency locations, 1 local park, and 6 churches.

An electronic version is available on Family Counseling Center, Inc.'s website by visiting fccinonline.org. In addition, electronic links have been placed on the agency's social media accounts (Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram) to ensure that youth between the ages of 11-24 years are able to receive a copy and/or electronic link.

Each year, the Youth Referral Guide will be updated and future revised editions will be distributed as determined by the Youth Committees. Revision suggestions may be emailed to youth@fccinonline.org.

This Youth Referral Guide is supported by the Division of Family and Community Services of the Illinois Department of Human Services under the Community Youth Services (CYS) program.
